

Mike Amberley "Live one day at a time." Mike is Riverdale's answer to Rock Hudson. His cherished memory is Oct. '69. He's interested in golf and hockey and would like to play goal in the NHL someday. He was a prefect '69-'71.

Helen Apouchtine Helen, whose ambition it is to go to McGill and then to travel, enjoys going to different places and doing different things. Her cherished memory is yet to come. Helen hates hypocrites, and she suffers from absent-mindedness. Best of luck.

Jaime Ayre (Tich) Jaime says that you don't realize what you've got until it's gone. Her weaknesses are Oreo cookies and her mother's car. Jaime's cherished memory is still going on as it is '68-? She dislikes arguments so stops them by saying "Really!?"

Mike Aaronson Mike has a set of car keys, no car, but still a set of keys! His ambition is to own a ski school in Colorado. His favourite saying is, "Get serious." Mike's cherished memory is the winter of '69-'70, and his main activity was the Ski Club.

John Aiken John is considered a member of the more athletically oriented populace of Riverdale. He's got a lot of his time wrapped up in sports and he is often seen at sports events. He participated last year in Handball, Wrestling, and Timers and Scorers.

Leslie Alexander Leslie was our Home Ec. Award winner. Leslie wants to travel around the world. She is interested in the war against pollution and was involved in Biology Club '69-'70, Students' Voice '68-'69, Grad Decorating Committee '69. Her cherished memory is June 28, 1969.

Marianne Bagchus Marianne wants to be an interior decorator but probably will end up doodling on her pink running shoes! Her cherished memory is last year and certain people. Her Riverdale activities included Art Club and Dance Committee.

Francine Bagdanov (Frankie) Francine's Friday saying is "Thank God it's Friday!" The rest of the week she's so anxious for Friday, she's saying "Ah, shut up." It could be because she dislikes noisy people. Her current interest is in boys and her asset is long blond hair.

Dan Bailin During Danny's two years at Riverdale his activities have been many, including class rep. '70, Handball, Wrestling and Weightlifting. Dan's ambition is to work for someone other than his father, though he will probably end up scrubbing floors for his mother.

Rosalyn Baird (Twiggy) Rosalyn's ambition is to be happy and with her sense of humour she's bound to make it. Her cherished memory will be July 30th 1972 (She figures that by that time something cherishable will have happened.) Her pet aversion is understandably people who ask if she's on a diet.

Paul Ballard (Pablo) Paul's ambition is to become a vet so he can treat his dog Norton. His assets are 3 pairs of running shoes. His cherished memory: "beating the Lowes in the Soul Bowl." While on the staff of the "Voice" he distinguished himself by never meeting a deadline. Activities: Basketball '67-'70, Volleyball '68-'70.

Brent Barnett "This is also true." Brent can always be seen in the Prefect room and it's a wonder he makes it to class on time (or does he?). "Man from Radical" claims he has no weaknesses. He belonged to the Prefect Board '69-'71 and Aquarium Club '67-'68.

Pauline Batchelor Pauline's ambition is to marry R. M., her current interest. She claims her assets to be "good looks and personality," and her prototype is Elizabeth Taylor. Her pet aversion is diets and her weakness is arguments. Her cherished memory is June 2, 1970.

Laurie Bate Laurie wants to be a stewardess or a personal secretary but her philosophy, "Quit while you're ahead," might slow her down. She has a current interest in Gary Cox and going to Nite Clubs. She was in Badminton '67, Gymnastics '68, and Cheerleading '68.

Lorne Battle (Loinze) Lorne wants to be either a recording artist or a technician within a studio. Could this be because he is interested in playing the guitar and recording? His cherished memory is a small town in 61-63k. While at Riverdale he took part in Track and Field.

Mark Bazerman (Buzz) "Everybody get together, try to love one another." Mark is one of Riverdale's landmarks, (look for a ball of fuzz with no visible means of support.) His asset is his hair and his major weaknesses are that he's shy and undersexed. Activities: "Voice" '69-'70, "Spirit" '70-'71, Radio Riverdale '69-'71, Union Court Jester. P.S. He's still growing.

Helen Beaulieu Helen wants to pass Algebra and get out of Riverdale. Her weakness is spending money which accompanies her favorite saying, "Got-a get one of those." She abhors flood-pants and waist-huggers. She was active in the Ski Club and La Tuque Exchange.

Allan Berezny Allan's favorite saying is "Far out." His pet aversions are juice freaks and he admits he is the "school hack." His ambition is to pass Algebra and since he has no weaknesses we're sure he will. Lots of luck.

Donna Bond (D. D.) "I'm not biased, I hate everybody separately but equally," says D. D., who wants to be a doctor. "It's true!" she always adds. Donna has been in Soccer '69, Students' Voice, Grad Committee and Biology Club.

Louesje Bondrager "Lou" has a great future planned — to study veterinary science, get a ranch and breed race horses. Naturally, she has a weakness for horses. Her assets are three left feet and unusual pants (they must be). Her activities are going to school, horse-back riding and guys.

John Bood "Greetings!" John's ambition is to own and operate a motel. His cherished memory is his trip to Europe '70. Like most people his pet aversion is people who talk too much. Activities: French Newspaper '70.

Iris Bisenieks "Sunset's" ambition is to be the first one on the sun and with her rosy red cheeks we haven't a doubt she'll make it. Iris was active in Coffee Houses and Dances. We wish her the best of luck.

Glen Black "Such brilliance" Glen's only ambition is to pass French and his asset is his roll of scotch tape. His weakness is girls and his aversion is people who ask him what he's doing. Activities: Prefect, Computer Club, La Tuque, and Curling.

Peter Boak Peter is currently interested in graduating from Riverdale and becoming a Phys. Ed. teacher. Badminton '68-'69, Volleyball '69-'70, Football '69-'70 and Wrestling '67-'70, occupied most of his time in Riverdale. Peter, with his blue eyes, looks forward to June.

Linda Boyce Linda has been busy in the band lately, working on her future career — a concert flutist or the conductor of the Russian Symphony Orchestra. She has a current interest in moving — where, she doesn't know. Her weaknesses are crackers and skinny boys.

Lynn Boychuk Lynn's ambition is to become a nurse but her probable destination is a professional housewife for C. L. Lynn's weaknesses are nice bums and C. L. Her current interest is C. L. She says her only pet peeve is curly hair. Good luck with C. L. Lynn.

Anne Bouma Anne likes to think of last year's trip to Holland, but as she says "Wow, does time fly!" She has a weakness for clothes and a current interest in John. Her asset is being short but she doesn't like her naturally curly hair.

Cathy Borosnick Cath wants to get out of school and work for Air Canada. She is often heard saying, "That's life," and most remembers summer and fall '68. Cath was class rep '67-'68 and GAA rep '67-'68.

Annette Bose "Always forgive your enemies, they can't stand it." Her cherished memory is Christmas '68 around 4:00 p.m. Annette was involved in the Military Whist '67, Track and Field '69. Her ambition is to work with emotionally disturbed children.

Alan Boyle Alan's fond memories are of a certain summer. He is often heard saying "Seriously!" Alan is seriously interested in Skiing, as he plans to be a ski instructor.

Dave Braendel (Bean Bag) Dave wants to be a motor cycle racer and a musician. His cherished memory is a certain girl, most likely with big green eyes. His asset is a Honda 90. While in Riverdale he took part in Water Polo, Swim Team, Wrestling and Badminton.

Tyler Bray (Tie) "Love to play tackle." Tyler's ambition is to become a Phys-ed teacher and his cherished memories are his pre-school days and weekends. Tyler was a star member of Riverdale's almost champion football team. Activities: Jr. Soccer '68-'69, Jr. Football '69-'71, Weight Training '69-'70 and Aquatic Club.

Peggy Brook (Pegatha) Peggy hates people who stare at her. She enjoys bugging people by singing, and her cherished memory is May 29, '70. Peggy's assets include her horoscope books and her ambition is to grow really long nails.

Albert Brouwer Albert wishes to rule the world and become cultured. He owns a used theatre ticket and admits he has no weaknesses. His current interest is 6 1/2 % at the Royal Bank. Albert's prototype is Ed Feigman. Good luck!

Mike Brown "All at once it came to me, I saw the wherefore, and you can see it if you try." (Gordon Lightfoot)

Pam Brown Pam's ambition is to move to Oakville, yet her pet aversion is moving from place to place! Her weaknesses are "For Sale" signs and her cherished memories are June '70 and a certain April Fool's morning. Good luck!

Vivian Buker (Viv) Viv's pet aversion is somebody who says "eat me." She wants to become a secretary or an accountant. Viv, who insists she's too short, says her current interest is "Igor". Her main Riverdale activity was the Peter Hall Club.

Fred Burklen Fred's ambition is to become a Biologist or Bio-Chemist and he found out what life really means one day when he visited his brother on a farm in Ontario. He is quiet, an avid baseball fan, and enjoys breeding fish (two prize angel fish). Fred can be heard saying "Oh, leave me alone!"

Michael Bye Michael's activities include trying to make it to class on time and eating so he won't fade away to a shadow. A banker's pocket is Mike's asset and filling in biography sheets is his pet aversion. He was involved in Bantam Soccer '69 and Wrestling '68.

Sandy Bye The personal philosophy of Riverdale's poet is "A person who is wrapped up in himself makes a pretty small package." Her weakness is locked car doors. Sandy was active in Blurb, Drama, Badminton, and she was Student Council rep. '69-'70.

Hugh Campbell "Life is a big circle which has turned square." Hugh wants to enter the field of forestry. His assets are two feet and a soccer ball and both these things came in handy when he participated in Soccer '67-'70. He was also a Prefect '69-'71.

John Campbell "The grand essentials in this life are something to do, something to love, and something to hope for." (Addison)

Christina Caron

Christina's weakness is music by Bacharach; her pet aversion is pollution. Her cherished memories are meeting "Students' Voice" deadlines and her ambitions are to dance with Les Feux-Follets and to write. She was involved in "Olympiad", variety shows and Public Speaking.

Janis Carruthers

"Life is like a basketball game: you can take a shot or dribble it away." There is one sure thing Janis wants to do, and that's to rise in the world, even if it's just over 5'4". Her current interests are blue Mustangs and palmistry.

Debbie Charter (Deb)

"If at first you don't succeed, cheat a little." Debbie wants to become a nurse. Her cherished memory is the Christmas Holiday '69-'70. Her pet peeve was having mono for the first three months of summer and having Carol come to visit her. Her activities were Ski Club and La Tuque.

Mike Chevalier "We often speak of killing time, as if, alas, it weren't time that kills us."

Barbara Christie Barb, as well as her present pre-occupation with keeping secrets, has been active in the Red Cross '68-'69 and carolling for S.W.A.Y. '68-'69. Barb's personal philosophy is "If you can't be with the guy you love, love the guy you're with." An aspiring nurse, "Josephine the Plumber" has a weakness in G. P.

Cheryl Christie "Never give up!" We hope Cheryl's favourite saying, "I don't remember!" doesn't affect her ambition: to become a professional musician. Her cherished memory is playing drums with the "Carnival Connection" at our Christmas dance '68. Active in the band, Cheryl's assets are her brown puppy dog eyes and her weakness is pasta.

Bruce Claasen "Lead me not into temptation; just show me where it is, and I'll find it for myself."

Dave Cochrane "That's something else." Dave, whose ambition is to become an established psychiatrist with an office in the Swiss Alps, is currently interested in listening to CKGM while not doing homework. Dave participated in Junior Football '70-'71, Cross Country and the Ski Club.

Gail Cocolicchio Coco's ambition is to become a fashion designer. She claims her assets are her eyes and says, "Go home, John!" She is currently interested in friends and weekends. Coco wants to end up being a very happy person but with her weakness being her temper she may have trouble. So best of luck, Coco!

Gary Cohen When asked what he considered his prototype Gary said, "I'm unique!" "Know yourself" is his personal philosophy. You've probably seen Gary participating in Sports events. He enjoys good food, music and travelling.

Charlie Corby "I completely forgot my ambition, I couldn't think of a claim to fame, I couldn't remember my destination You're lucky I remembered my name."

Phil Coristine "The way I figure it, the world can't come to an end today because it is already tomorrow in some other part of the world." (Charles Schultz)

Cameron Crawford Cameron's favorite pastimes are listening to good music and philosophizing. His assets include his long hair, and his mock seriousness. Best of luck in the future, Cameron.

Wendy Crawford Wendy is a girl — that's her asset — and she wants to be a homemaker. She fondly remembers a Beaconsfield dance in '69. Her weakness is a certain boy and being with him is her current interest.

Bill Davison (Willy) Bill is alive and breathing and would like to teach Phys. Ed. in a small one horse town up north. He has many cherished memories and enjoys playing for the Dorval Jr. Jets. He dislikes high sticks and butt ends. Bill was involved in Junior and Bantam Volleyball '68-'70.

Lorne Davis Lorne cherishes the memory of Christmas Holidays '68 and hates heads, ears, mouths. His assets are a Labatts 50 and C. H. Lorne has been involved in Wrestling, Rugger, Football, Handball, Aquatic Club, and the Grad Committee.

Angela Davison Angela's personal philosophy is "Live for today and enjoy yourself in the best way." Her prototype is an angel and her assets are courage, recklessness, and a certain S. T. The best of luck in the future, Angela!
Wendy Des Cotes Wendy loves honest people, and "nifty" senses of humour. Her pet peeves are undesirable nicknames. Her assets are "little brother" and the "old limbs." She says she's ambitious, but doesn't know in what direction. (maybe teaching) She participated in Choir '67-'68, La Tuque Club '67-'70, Rhythms '68-'69, Prefect '69-'71, and French Club '70-'71. "Chow" Wendy and lots of luck.

Laurie Demers "Nothing is a waste that makes a memory." (Anon.)

Debbie De Pol "You have a safe guide, and unfailing light, if you remember that faith is better than doubt and love is better than hate." (Sir Wilfred Laurier)

Peter Desmier (Mik) Pete's ambition is to become a cat burglar, and he's had some experience. His current interest is climbing up and falling off the roof of a certain school. His cherished memory is the Oakville Band trip. Mik's prototype is King Mooch and his weakness is St. Bernards.

Daphne de Souza (Daffles) Daphne's favorite saying is "I don't know" but we know she hates having her nose bitten. She is ticklish but nonetheless was involved as a Prefect, G.A.A. rep, and Grad Committee head. As well, she was Senior House Leader.

Hans Dirr (Bob) Bob's pet aversion is a crowded ski hill (!) and his ambition is to become a textile engineer. He claims he is still trying to get used to Riverdale and that his weakness is homework. Best of luck, Hans!

Diane Donnelly Diane wants to try everything at least once, including a trip around the world in an MG. Active in the Aquatic Club '68, Ski Club '69, and as a Student Union Rep '70, Diane found time to indulge in her weakness: guys with blue eyes and blonde hair.

Judy Dow Judy believes you should live and let live. This explains her ambition of being a biologist. She has fond memories of a certain New Year's party. She was involved in Red Cross '68-'69, Badminton '69-'70, Olympiad '69-'70, and the Students' Voice '70-'71.

Dave Drummond "How is it going?" We were just going to ask you the same question Dave. Been pushing any motorcycles lately? Dave's cherished memories are a certain girl and a green scooter. His current interests are skiing, cars, girls, and motorcycles. He was a Prefect '69-'71.

Margaret Drysder Marg's ambition is to be a teacher. Her cherished memories are the days between Marg's weakness is beautiful feet. Best of luck in the pursuit of that future.

Dave Durdey Dave's ambition is to become a veterinary surgeon and paradoxically, his cherished memories are his hunting and fishing trips (that's the way to make sure he always has clients). His prototype is Gadabout Addis and his assets are his car and his English accent. He is easily persuaded to do anything.

William Egan (Bill) Bill's finest asset is his ability to fake History exams, always a useful talent. His cherished memory and his activities are both sleeping. His pet aversion is teachers who take themselves too seriously and assist on giving homework.

Beatrice Eyles Beatrice seems so utterly innocent with those dark brown eyes, but we all know better. She wants to teach in elementary school and her cherished memory is August '70. Her activities included Basketball, Soccer, Volleyball, G.A.A., and the French Club.

Sue Elimeleek (Betty) "No, not the whip!" Sue's ambition is to teach kindergarten (Without using the whip). Her cherished memory is Hallowe'en '69 and her pet aversion is the whip (and people who pull off wigs). Activities include Drama '68-'69, and the French Club.

Ann Etienne Ann's ambition is in art. With her many artistic assets she'll probably achieve her ambition. Ann's pet aversion is big purses. Her cherished memories are the Graveyard Party and January 17, 1970. This active student participated in Carolling '68.

Brian Farmer Brian's unimaginative ambition is "to find some money." He has forgotten his cherished memory, but his pet aversions are friendly neck-up tests and lima beans. His weakness is thinking, and besides listening to Radio Moscow, his interests are avoiding debts while spending money.

Shane Farrell "I think of witty things to say, would be considered bright; except I always think of them in the middle of the night." (Anon.)
Keith Fennel Keith's ambition is to be alive and with friends; but he'll probably end up as a mugger since he's had experience, and exhibits a flair for the art. His pet aversions are biographies and analytical people. His asset is his amorphous personality.
George Fitzner George's ambition is to be a draftsman or a surveyor, and he's starting off right — his asset is a drafting board. Unfortunately, George's only activity was being a student at Riverdale.

Lynn Fitzsimmons "Oh, just 'cause." Lynn's asset is her ability to think up great ways to amuse herself, such as using her green eyeshadow as lipstick and ending up with a green mouth. Her ambition is to become a commercial artist and her cherished memory is being hit by a car. Activities: Newspaper, Art Club, French Club.

Roland Fohring Roland, the guy who hates commercials, wants to own a profitable business and then retire early. Roland's favorite saying is, "Hey man, cool it". His current interests are music and powerful cars.

Chris Forcand "There are no rules of architecture for a castle in the clouds." (G. K. Chesterton)

Douglas Fox Doug wants to be an engineer (probably so he can rebuild everything he managed to destroy during his time at Riverdale.) His cherished memory is passing out at the end of the year. Activities: Chess Club, Cribbage Club, Student Council rep. '67-'68.

Thelma Fraiberg

People live from day to day
 But they do not count the time.
 They don't see their days
 Skipping by — and neither do I.

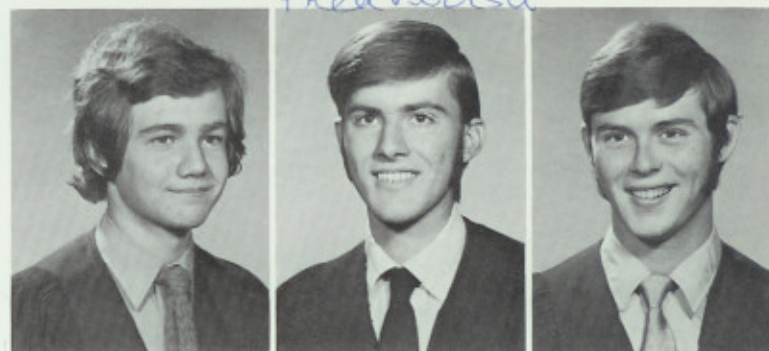

James Taylor

Joanne Fryer Joanne is a pale blue-eyed, consistent talker. Her fond memory is a trip to Penetang, Ont. where she perhaps learned that "all guys are ..." Jo-Jo plans on becoming a nurse. She participated in Gymnastics '68-'69.

Ken Fryer "Running down the road, make my get away." Ken wants to live and to see King Crimson live on stage. His assets are his record collection, stereo and bedroom. His cherished memory is being sick on greaseburgers (a form of hamburgers native to Plattsburg.)

Fred Furster Fred will grin and bear it as he studies medicine. He has patience with our nutty world but dislikes changing his guitar string. His cherished memory is yet to come and he filled his day from 8:45 to 3:31 with many varied activities.

Ted Gamble "You know?" Ted's original ambition is to achieve isolation with a menonite in Manitoba. Unfortunately his cherished memory is censored, but his pet aversion is Montreal Sports fans. Activities: Soccer '67-'71, Swim Team '69-'71, Prefect.

Anne Gardner "Oops!" Anne can usually be seen bouncing happily down the halls of Riverdale. Her prototype is a "bottle of champagne" and maybe this accounts for her asset: one confused mind. Anne's pet aversions are people who leave the "N" out of Gard-er and apathetic people.

Tom Gaustad Tom's philosophy that ignorance is bliss may make it difficult to realize his ambition, awareness. Blessed with hairy legs and a big nose, Tom remembers summer '70 and is currently interested in the R.H.S. Band.

Gregg Gavin "Common sense is not so common." His assets are manly white shirts and ties. Gregg's activities include helping occasionally in the library and living.

Jennifer Godson "Wait and things might happen." Jen wants to be a nurse. Her cherished memory is Mr. Jeffers' geometry classes and she hates people who don't bother to say "Hello." Hello from all of us Jen!

Louise Gorby Remember tricycles with streamers, teddy bears, the first day of kindergarten, smoking cigars with Thelma, peanut butter sandwiches, giraffes, sand castles, rainy days, last summer living with Judi for 2 months all by ourselves, going to camp, going skinny dipping at 1 a.m., having corn and koolaid for breakfast?

Cathy Gordon Cathy would like to become a brain surgeon! About all you ever hear her say is "Can I borrow a smoke?" She has a very serious weakness: carrots! Cathy's cherished memory is summer '70 and her activity at Riverdale was carolling '68-'69.

Pat Gibbons Pat would like to travel around the world after going to Dawson. She is interested in skiing and she'd love to learn to sky-dive. Teachers anyone!

Donald Gillespie While Donald is at school avoiding his pet aversion homework, he may be heard shouting from some distant corner of the room "No way!" His activities while at Riverdale have included Soccer '70, and Chess '68. His most cherished memory is the summer of '70.

Richard Gittens Rick's ambition is to be happy and with his cherished memories he has a good start. His weaknesses are wine, women, songs, and ... Rick was active in football, hockey and handball.

Louise Gordon (Flash) Louise's ambition is to get up on water skis in less than nine tries. Her asset is Molly Moo-Moo, her pet cow, and her cherished memory is the night she locked the dirty old man in the shack. Understandably her pet aversion is that the dirty old man couldn't take a joke.

Pam Gordon "Gordy" says, "Once a secret, never a secret", at the same time claiming that well-used vocal chords are her assets — you said it, Pam, not I! Guys with nice smiles are Pam's weaknesses and as it just happens, her current interest is a certain guy with a nice smile.

David Grant David would like to save up enough money to travel across Europe though his current weakness is money. His voice can still be heard echoing throughout the halls of Riverdale, "So what do you want me to do?"

Joanne Grant (Jo-Jo) "Cae!" Jo's main ambition is to get out of school. Her cherished memory is April 10, 1969 and her current interest is a certain D.L. While at Riverdale she belonged to Majorettes '69. Good Luck, Jo.

Chris Gray Chris' ambition is to get out of Riverdale. His asset is his wallet and he is continually saying "DOBBIN, be early tomorrow morning." His cherished memory is summer '70 at Buck's Pub. Chris' activities were Soccer 66-67 and Volleyball 68-70.

Farlan Gray Farlan's ambition is to enter journalism and conquer it. His assets are his 7 pipes and his prototype is Good Soldier Swieck. His pet aversion is hair cuts, and when he's not putting dummies on train tracks he's trying to learn French.

Ian Gray (C.Q. Nurtord) "There is no problem so important that it can't be run away from." Our "Great Huff" worked on the Student's Voice 68-70 and Olympiad 70-71. "Ya Crud" can be heard throughout the halls whenever he's not the victim of simulated muggings.

Scott Gray (Baldy) During Scott's four years at Riverdale his only activities were his continual efforts to sell creamatorium ashes to cannibals as "instant people." After failing in this venture he sunk into a deep trance from which he has not yet recovered.

Carol Greenbank (Hey) "Oh no!" Yes we know how much you hate straight hair Carol. Carol's weaknesses are rings and moustaches (any moustache in particular?) Her ambition is to travel. We wish you all the best!

Marilyn Greaves Marilyn's rising ambition is someday to be at least five feet tall. She also awaits the day people will realize her name is Greaves — not "Graves". "Always do what you think is right, not what someone tells you is right."

Cathy Grigg Cathy was once called cats or tiger but she's more like her mother now. Her personal philosophy is "try to love" but I guess she doesn't listen to herself because her pet aversions are G.S. and love. She belonged to the Ski Club, Geography Club and the French Theatre.

Stephen Grigg (Schnavilavitch) "Girls are like a bowl of cherries, some are sweet, others are sour." It is understandable why Steve hates sour cherries but still finds cherries his weakness. His cherished memory is the Led Zepelin '70 show and Steve's ambition is to go lumber jacking with T.S.

Sharon Hamill (Shelden) Sharon plans to get married and be a medical assistant. Her current interests are shopping, driving fast cars, and having fun. She has fond memories of meeting a certain B.M. and of Graduation '70.

Donna Hamilton (Donner) "Look to this day, for yesterday is already a dream and tomorrow only a vision." Her activities included Olympiad 69-71, Students' Voice 70-71, and the Ski Club. Her cherished memory is summer '69 at Cape Cod. Her asset is one full diary and her weakness is football players.

Fred Hansen Fred's ambition is to finish learning Spanish but he feels that he'll end up in "Never-Never Land" instead. His prototype is Warren Armstrong and currently he is interested in Theosophy and Greek Mythology. Activities: baseball, football, drawing.

Richard Groves Richard can be often heard exclaiming "You nibblenabber" or better still "I say old chap." His many assets include laughing a lot and diving. Richard's cherished memories include two years of Julia and two weeks in Cyprus.

Danny Hague "Forget it." Dan's ambition is to thumb to Vancouver this summer. He cherishes the memory of a dance at St. Thomas. His pet aversion is work and his current interests are sleeping and talking on the phone. Debbie Hamill Debbie was our Miss CFOX rep '71. Her ambition is to be a Phys. Ed teacher. She has many cherished memories, the CFOX Battle of the Bands and Expo '67 being two of them. She can be heard saying "un-real" and like everyone else does not enjoy being cut down.

Alan Harris "Censored!" Alan has a practical ambition to become rich before it's too late. He's on his way there already with his assets of $1.50, a comb and a set of old golf clubs. His cherished memory is August '70 and people who can't play snooker. Activity: Band '67-'71.

Robert Hart (Reub) "Pitiful." Work, to Rob is a fascinating thing; he can sit and watch it for hours. His ambition is to finish high school and go to college. His current interest is hockey and his pet peeve is scoring on his own net.

Ted Harvey (Bugs Bunny) Ted, one of Riverdale's athletes, is seen around most sports events. His ambition is to be somebody and judging from the enthusiasm he puts into sports, he'll be a success. He participated in Handball '68-'71, Wrestling '67-'71, Rugger '69-'71 and Broomball '68-'71.

Tom Haverstock Tom's ambition is to become somebody important and he'll probably attain it because of his brains and good looks. He fondly remembers doing his homework for a full ten minutes and he would like to receive his High School Leaving Certificate. While at Riverdale he was in the band.

Joanna Hazell (Joe) "Easy come, easy go", says Joanna who plans to become a teacher and travel. She also says "Barnes, gimme back my pants" quite often. Besides "indoor activities" she's been in Sway '69 and Girl's Football '70.

Patricia Heffernan (Patrician) "Hey Karin are you free now?" Pat wants to be a nurse but she'll probably end up cutting paper dolls in the children's ward. She'll always remember a certain week-end in July '69. Pat likes blond haired boys, dark haired boys, well lets face it, she likes boys!

Paul Heino Paul, the "Easy Rider" of our school will roar off from Riverdale as soon as he can (5 or 6 years from now). His ambition is to become a member of the Hell's Angels. His activities in Riverdale include Rugby, Volleyball, and Caroling '68.

Karen Hendrick Karen wants to become a teacher but she'll "never be a math teacher." Her cherished memory is a certain party in Nov. '69 and her pet aversion is people who pronounce her name with an 'S'. Her weakness is male student teachers.

Scott Higham "Why put off till tomorrow what can be done today." Scott wants to be a Biologist. That's why we can hear him saying "That's life, I guess." He hates getting up before 10:00 a.m. Scott worked on the Anti-Pollution Campaign '69-'71 and was a Prefect '70-'71.

Dorothy Hillman (Dorty) "Wouldn't you like to know!" Dorothy wants to be able to face everything with her two feet planted firmly in the ground so we dare anyone to try to uproot them. She took part in Badminton '68, Basketball '69-'70, Volleyball '69-'70, Soccer '69 and Track and Field '69.

Anna Hinds Anna, who is currently interested in ballet and yoga, would like to go back home to Barbados and get a suntan. People who talk a lot and don't say anything are Anna's pet peeve. Her cherished memory is a certain Adrian at the Hilton on June 6th.

Susan Hobson "Is that right, eh?" Sue's cherished memories are recollecting all of them. Her assets are her family and friends and there is nothing she loves more than spaghetti, the sun, diving boards and certain people.

Anne Horner Anne's ambition is to take an arts course, then to travel to an ocean. Her cherished memories are all the triumphs and treacherous moments of the past 4 years. Her activities are Prefect '69-'70, Sports '67-'70, G.A.A. '69, French Club '69-'70, Ski Club and Bulletin Board '71.

Nicky Houston Nicky's assets are two marbles. His personal philosophy is "chast makes waste!" He claims his cherished memory is a night at the King's Palace. Nick's prototype is Roger Ramjet. He was active in the Friday Night Pizza Club and Wrestling '68-'71.

Doug Howes (Squelch) "Beautiful, just beautiful!" Most of the time Doug wanders around muttering "Go Bruins, go," with a dazed look in his eyes. His asset is one Boston Bruins sweater. His cherished memory is the last week of August '70 and his current interests are "Ma & Pa". Doug was very active in the Union.

Wendy Evelyn Hughes "Harriet's" personal philosophy is "It is better to remain silent and appear ignorant than to open your mouth and remove all doubt." For this reason it is easy to see why her weakness is her brain. Her ambition is to become a television production assistant.

Karin Hughson (Barney) Karin wants to become a stewardess but with her weakness as food and milk shakes, she may have a problem conforming to weight regulations. Her cherished memory is her French class, Grade 10. Her favorite saying is "I'll do it later."

Dave Hutchison (Dimples) Dave cherished the day he took the garbage out by himself. His ambition is to wash office windows with Windex. Dimples often declares "Oh, Baby!" His assets are his harem (eh?) and of course, his dimples!

Elizabeth Illesy "Hi! How's your mother?" Liz wants to become a teacher. Her assets are her ears. Liz's cherished memory is May 5, 1970. Lots of luck Liz.

Anne James "Smiley" would be lost, without her friends. She fondly remembers being in Mr. Yanofsky's class and fondly detests rainy days and short pants. She's been in Gymnastics, Ski Club, Cheerleading, Grad Committee and Prefect.

Linda Jenson (Shortie) "You can't win them all!" Linda wants to be a Ground Stewardess but right now she is interested in Art. She has two cherished memories — November 9, 1969 and New Year's Eve. Good luck Shortie!

Paul Johnson "Money is everything". Paul's ambition is to program computers. His assets are one issue of 'Spirit' and a juicy fruit wrapper (he's not sure which is more useful). His cherished memories are driving Mrs. Smeja up the wall and July 1970. His major weakness is food. Activities: Swim Club '67-'68, Computer Club '69-'70.

Sally Johnson Sally, alias Sally Bananas, will probably end up bumming around England calling "Where's Ellen?" Things that go bang in the night make life easy come easy go. Ski Club Exec., and Drama are her contributions to the school.

Mena Johnston (Mener) "Don't throw your mouth into high gear before your brains warm up." Mener wants to become a lab technician, while happily singing her 29 verse song. For her, Boston Bruins are number one, so don't mention the Canadiens! Good luck Mena.

Lynn Jonah (Lynn Burger) Lynn Burger's ambition is to become a physio-therapist (heavens!) but with a pet aversion of English class — who knows! Lynn's cherished memory is summer '70 in Europe. Good luck, Lynn.

Catherine Jones Cathy believes you should live and let live. Her main assets are her expensive teeth! For some reason Kevin Tycel is her pet aversion. Wonder why? Cathy is currently interested in Zambia, Africa and her activities included the Geography Club.

Lorraine Juhl (Rainy) "A lie is just as good as the truth if you can get somebody to believe it." Her assets are her birdcalls. When not busy watching numbers (99) her activities included Swim Club '67-'68, Fashion Show '68-'69, Red Cross '68-'70, Film Club '69. Favorite pastime is insulting Lana.

Susan Klar "Who are those guys?" asks green-eyed Susan. Maybe the rich man she's going to marry. Susan wants to be a practical nurse, aside from skiing and writing poetry. She belonged to the Ski Club '68-'71 and was Prefect '69-'71. No more blind dates for her!

Fritz Klein "Cuddles" walks our halls with those blue tinted glasses. His philosophy is "if it feels good, do it" ... Yes Fritz we know your memories are censored. Weaknesses being females and planes we can understand an ambition to travel.

Yolanda Klootwyk (Yo-Yo) "Live for to-day, you might not be around tomorrow." Yolie's ambition is to become a physical education teacher, and get those muscles into shape. Her cherished memory is the summer in B.C. '69. Activities: Volleyball '67, G.A.A. rep. '67-'70, Cheerleading '69-'71, Soccer '68-'69, Choir '67.

Andy Keller Though he has a short memory, Andy wishes to be a bush pilot. He advocates "Do unto others before they do unto you," do he can be heard saying "Who?" At Riverdale, Andy played Junior Soccer '68 and Senior Soccer '70. He remembers P.H. and summer '70.

Robert Kirsh Robert's ambition is to be a ski bum, challenging the mountain ranges of the world. He's looking forward to going skiing in Switzerland. Robert was president of the Chess and Aerotics Clubs '70-'71 and a member of the Chess and Ski Club '67-'71.

Joan King "Wanna hear something funny?" Joan wants to get through life doing as little work as possible. She claims her asset is her natural bleached blonde hair and if there is one thing she hates it's people who listen in on phone calls. Her current interests are her weekends.

Edward Knoll "Life is but a kumquat." Edward wants to be a kumquat, if he grows up. His cherished memory is being trapped in an elevator with a kumquat named Shirley for 3 days. At Riverdale he was the founder and first president of the Riverdale Society of Kumquats and Mastodians.

Jack Kolinski "Life is short, so enjoy every minute." Jack's ambition is to go to college and get a medical degree. His weakness is French and his current interest is Senior Basketball. His activities were Basketball '67-'68.

John Kovac "Love 'em an' leave 'em." John, whose prototype is Tarzan, has an aversion to lampposts (especially when they jump into the middle of the road and attack your car). His ambition is to go to college, where he can pursue activity — sleeping.

Stephanie Laekas "If life was but one day: 24 hours of choice, would you choose a day already lived?"

Dave Landers (Root) Dave's ambition is to get out of Riverdale. His asset is his red-hair, (which combined with his gorgeous musculature renders him irresistible to the females of Riverdale). His aversion is homework. Current interests: Hockey, Baseball, Golf, and Table Tennis.

Brigitte Langer (Biggie) Brigitte would like to become a ground hostess in an airline. Her cherished memory is summer '70 and she is now making sure a certain person is happy. Her favourite saying is censored. Good luck in your future years.

Mara Langer Mara can often be heard saying "Bien sur." Her cherished memory is Aug. 12 with C.D., and her only wish to to make sure he's happy. But she still found time for Volleyball, Basketball, Student Council, Red Cross, and G.A.A.

Bob Laughlin (Laugh-In) "If you do it, do it right." Bob has an ambition common to many this year: to pass French. His cherished memory is the Christmas of 1969. His current interest apart from performing magic in the library, is living. Activities: Ski-Club '70-'71.

Carol Laws Carol has no use for sarcastic people and although she aspires to be a stewardess she'll probably become a housewife. Her cherished memory is May 15, 1968 because she met V.K. Carol can often be heard saying "Take off Debbie."

Cindy Leeming (Bobo) Cindy wants to be a nurse but she often says "Easy come, easy go." She doesn't like to be teased because her weakness is blushing. Cindy's current interest is a certain D.F. She was in Gymnastics '68-'69, Swimming '68-'69, Basketball '70-'71 and Band '69-'71.

Iain Leggot (Smiley) Iain, who wishes to become an electronics engineer, can be heard saying, "How much you wanna bet?" "Smiley's" interests include rowing, skiing, swimming and skating. No wonder he finds it hard to get up in the morning. He fondly remembers immigrating from Scotland.

Rhonda Leibovitch Rhonda's cherished memory is a cruise to the Caribbean! Her pet aversion is winter and her ambition is to find out what the world is all about. Her activities included the Science Club and the Drama Club.

Graeme Loney "Glasses may change one's personality, depending on how fast you empty them." Graeme's ambition is to be a pro drummer but he will probably end up playing cymbals in Riverdale's band for years to come. He'll always remember a certain weekend up north.

Mark Lepik (Igor) "Better living through chemistry." Mark's ambition is to create artificial life. His cherished memory is watching a simulated mugging. Igor's asset is his slide-rule. He participated in Survival Day celebrations.

Mike Landvay (Stretch) Mike says "the old must yield space to me, the young." He loves comedies, eating, and cracking jokes. His asset is his 6'6" 190 lb. frame and that's some asset! He was involved in Volleyball.

Pearly Levine Pearly wants to be a nurse. She dislikes selfish people and frizzy hair. Some of Pearly's activities were Ski Club, Art Club, and French Club. Good luck in the future Pearly!

Chico Levy (Doggie) "You unsanitary dog!" Chico is another one of those materialistic people who wants to become a millionaire. At least he's consistent: his weakness is girls, his current interests are girls and his pet aversion is girls who are not sexy.

Norman Libenson Norman wants to be an aeronautical engineer. His cherished memory is Christmas in Miami '69-'70. He enjoys listening to music, skiing, and swimming. He was active in the Chess Club, Ski Club '68-'70, Band '68-'70 and Prefect '69-'71.

Debi Lomas (Roomy) "It isn't all that bad." Debi's only ambition is to be happy. She lists her assets as K.K., strong teeth, and a father who works for Air Canada. Her aversions are Christine in the morning and math and she has a weakness for weekends. Activities: Variety show '69, wrestling tournament '67, Carnival Princess '69-'70.

Ross Lowe (Norton) "T is nobler in the mind to savour the flavour of Labatt or Draft, than to suffer the outrageous misfortunes of a Molson!" So says honest Ross, whose ambition is to never work a day of his life. His interests lie in this, that and the other thing.

Christina Luik "Anna" doesn't especially like being called Eenie so be careful. Her asset is being born in Sweden. Her current interest (and probable pastime) has been persuading her father the car will come back in one piece when she drives it.

Linda Lunt Linda, hopefully a future airline stewardess, is currently spending her weekends at no. 73. Whatever that may mean Linda, we hope it equals that time in Liverpool, England on July 18, 1970. Happy flying!

Robyn Lusted "Never do today what you can do a week from next week." Robyn wants to be a ski bum and so her asset might come in handy — lots of courage. She hates classes ... but males? Well, let's try again!

Judy Mahood Judy claims that her ambition is to go to Vanier and then travel. Skiing is her current interest. She says that her cherished memory is yet to come. Lots of luck, Judy!

Ross Mair Ross' ambition is to become a brain surgeon, which is interesting ... as his weakness is daydreaming. His aversions are maxis and minis and his cherished memory is Easter '70. His activities included cutting off his legs and bumming around.

Sonia Malboeuf Sonia, who wants to be a cosmetician, hates school and walking. She can often be heard saying "You're kidding!" Sonia likes dancing, J.B. and nature. She'll always remember June 22 and August '70. She participated in Badminton in '67.

Susan Malboeuf "Sue's bad temper is probably the cause of her yelling "Shut up" or "Aw, come on" at people who think they're cool. She would like to be a secretary and get married to P.P. She likes to remember September 5, 1969. Susan's asset is her car.

Gabrielle Matern Gaby's ambition is to enter retailing. Her claimed asset is having the wildest parties around. Gaby's cherished memory occurred on June 27, 1970. She was active in the Student Union, French Club, Students' Council, Coffee House Committee and Variety Show '69.

Anne Maxwell (Maxie) "Oh well, we'll see ..." Anne wants to get out of school and leave as something useful. Her weakness is Tuna fish sandwiches and her pet aversions are mornings. At Riverdale she took part in Basketball '67, Volleyball '68 and Badminton '69.

Ian Maxwell (Big Max) Ian's prototype is the Jolly Green Giant. His ambition is to become a chemical engineer and his favorite saying is "Eat me!" Ian's pet aversions are women who talk too much and he's got a weakness for low-hanging objects. Good luck, Ian!

Kim Mallette Kim, whose ambition is to get out of High School, hates classes and daydreams in them. He always cherished the last bell of the day.

Kim says "Don't worry about it," and enjoys pool, poker, skiing and tennis.

Christine Mann (Chris) "Live a little, love a little, laugh a little." Mosquitos and people who don't call her Chris are Christine's pet aversions. Currently she is interested in convincing Sue that she will be famous first. Her ambition is to become a teacher and to tour the world. Activities: Ski Club, Band, Fashion Show Committee.

Bill Marshall Bill's favorite pastime is bugging his old man for the car and his ambition is to drive a Rolls-Royce to Riverdale. Talk about luxury in the midst of squalor! Bill's asset is one mangled ski pole.

Angelika May (Gelike) "Make the most of every opportunity." Angelika's current interest is talking to "Jenny the witch," as well as being an accomplished witch in her own right. She also writes poetry. Her cherished memory is Beverly Hills '69. Activities: Ski Club, Students' Council Rep.

Maureen MacDonald (Moe) Because Maureen likes to sleep in on week days you can often hear her "I slept in again" excuse. Moe would like to become a nurse. Her cherished memory is Grad night '70 and her activities were basketball, badminton and football.

Wendy MacIntosh (Mappins) "Life is like footsteps in the sand, each step forward leaves an impression behind." Wendy wishes to be a model and her long hair is her asset. She dislikes people who lie and her weakness is a certain M.V. She was active in the Art Club and other activities.

Heather Maclean "When the Lord handed out humour, woman was late, as usual. She arrived just in time to get the last laugh." (Tom Haggai)

Doug Macleod Doug seems to be an outdoorsman. He wants to have a future in forestry or conservation and is interested in canoeing, camping and snowshoeing. Be sure to look out for low-flying seagulls, Doug. His asset is one pair of worn out mukluks.

Janice MacTaggart "If at first you don't succeed, try again" has often left "Tiger" on "the floor" drowned in toffee and chocolate chip cookies. When not on prefect duty, or causing a cyclone in the gym, Janice could be found singing, dancing, and drinking. Her aim is to become a physio-therapist.

Geoffrey McAdam Geoff says "Know what you're doing and do it right." His prototype is Percy Saltzman and declares an ingrown toenail on his left "twindle-pindy" to be his asset. In Riverdale he was a Students' Council rep. '67-'69 and Prefect '69-'71 Geoff hates kippers!

David McClintock Dave's main assets are records and musical equipment. His ambition is to get through university and earn a good living. Well, good luck on that one, Dave. David's activities are hockey, golf and water polo.

Joe McCombe Joe's weakness is his hair roots and his asset left him behind last year (at Riverdale). His current interest is the La Tuque Exchange as he is the president. Joe's activities were Swim Team '66-'67, Band '67-'68, Students' Council '68-'69 and La Tuque Exchange '66-'71.

Wayne McCutcheon (Red) "You're kidding?" Nope, he hates keeping his room tidy. His asset is his "Red" hair and Wayne likes tinkering around in a work shop. Let's hope it won't stop him from passing grade eleven. Probably not.

Brian McDonald "Eat and sleep and you'll grow taller." Brian has a two-part ambition: to sleep his life away and to become a computer technician. We have every confidence in his ability to achieve the first part and we wish him luck on the second. His activities include the Film Society '69-'71 and the Library Staff '68.

Glen McDonald (Mac) Glen can often be heard saying "Not bad" or "Nothing." His most cherished memory is being suspended in Grade 8. Some cherished memory! Glen likes Hockey, Baseball, and Mr. Christmas' French class.

Steve McGirr Steve's ambition is to see the Band live in his living room. His pet aversions are greasers and the Top 30. His current interest is listening to records. Activities: Radio Riverdale '69-'70-'71.

Kirk McIntosh Kirk's ambition is to be carried away by a beautiful, rich woman. He claims he has no memories worth remembering and his activities include fraud and extortion.

John McKee John's ambition is to go to university and get a commerce degree. His pet aversion is being followed around by Burfind. His favorite saying is "I don't know." John was active in football, hockey, handball and floor hockey.

Don McCurtry "We spend the first half of our lives trying to understand the older generation, and the second half trying to understand the younger generation." (Earl Wilson)

Robert McPhail "I don't know." Robert wants to go to a university outside of Quebec and become an engineer. His assets are a pen, a pencil, and a locker full of borrowed looseleaf. He claims his weakness is his "louzy spelling". We agree Robert!

Christopher Meech Chris' asset is his loveable personality and he is often heard saying "Yup, yup". He is one of those Ed Feigman types. His pet aversion and weakness is writing biographies. (Thanks alot). He was a member of Junior Basketball '69-'70.

Debbie Meier Debbie says you should enjoy life and make the best of every possible situation. Because of this, Debbie wants to be a social worker, to make the world a better place. But she still can't make the best of her pet aversion — dry, soulless English teachers.

Elaine Métié Elaine's ambition is simply to be happy. Her cherished memories are V.D.V.G. Jr., Mr. P., and May 15, 16, '70. Her pet aversion is Students' Union meetings that last past 5:00 P.M. Her weakness is FM. Activities: Drama, Prefect, French Club, Student Services Co-ordinator, Student Union Exec.

Peter Miles The greatest educational dogma is also its greatest fallacy: the belief that what must be learned can necessarily be taught.

Sydney J. Harris

Don Monk (Chip) Don's ambition is to become an engineer. When he's not being slashed by mad Estonians, he's trying to pass French. His cherished memory is May 6, 1970. He was active in the Cribbage Club '69-'70, Chemistry Club '69-'70, Bantam Soccer '68-'69, Senior Soccer '69-'71.

Osmo Mononen Osmo's cherished memory is hitch-hiking across Canada in summer '70. We guess that's when he found out his pet aversion — up-tight drivers. His ambition is to become an artist and do some more travelling. His current interests are skiing and painting.

Lee Morris Lee claims that her current interest is a certain blue-eyed blond guy. French fries at 10:00 a.m. and lettuce and cheese sandwiches for lunch are her weaknesses while peanut butter, honey and hypocrites are her pet aversions.

Donald Morrison "Be on time." If you should ever hear of the "Gaelic Separatist," you know Donald is in the vicinity. His ambition is to become the president of passenger services for C.P. Rail and his interests are filming and producing. He was active in the Film Society.

Keith Morrison Keith's ambition is to become the president of the computer section of Air Canada. His asset is his logical, mathematical mind. His prototype is Albert Einstein and his weakness is math. His current interest is also math.

Susan Moskaluk "When I'm famous . . ." It will probably be because of her blue eyelashes or her gold ankle chain. Her cherished memory is Bathsheba '69. Sue kept pretty busy with Art Club '68, Drama '69, La Tuque '68-'70, Fashion Show '68-'69 and the Ski Club.

Carol Munro Carol's philosophy is "Leave for tomorrow what you can do today." Her ambition is to be a stewardess. Her cherished memory is summer '70. Carol's weakness is food and she stays away from people who are dieting.

Irwin Nayer "Almost only counts in horseshoes." Irwin wants to earn lots of money, not very original, but it's a start. He lists one asset as "a sense of humour." He seems to think that some of the teachers need humouring. His cherished memory is setting fire to the General Science lab. He was involved in the Debating and Public Speaking '67-'68.

Warren J. Newman "I'm a friendly stranger in a black sedan." Warren's major weakness is his deformed left pinky, which is totally lacking in biceps. His prototype is Harold Stassen, a great leader of men, and Warren's aversion is Creedence Clearwater Revival. His cherished memory is the night of October 4, 1970. His activities include the Debating and Public Speaking '69-'70, Radio Riverdale '69-'71, Track and Field, Cross Country, and Students' Council Rep.

Earl Newton "Read as much as you can while you can." Earl's biography wasn't too hard to write since his ambition, his current interest and his weakness all fell into the same category — reading books. Good luck to you.

Olla Newton (Oliver) Olla believes everything is hopeless. I wonder why? Her current interest is to pass geometry and she wants to be either a pharmacist or a history teacher. With a prototype of Bob Hope she might succeed better as a comedian.

Heather Nicholls (Nebs) "Nebs" wants to become a nurse or audiologist. She has a thing about being late but kept up on her activities: Grad committee '68-'70, Fashion Show '68-'71, French Club '70-'71, Wrestling '70-'71. She can be heard saying "Do I have to?"

Jane Nichols "This picture is not me!" So says Riverdale's one and only Jane Nichols. Jane claims that her pet aversion is spiders. Her current interests are skinny little Frenchmen. Her ambition is to destroy Riverdale.

Monica Nuchter (Monie) "You're not too bright, are you?" Monica's main ambition is to leave high school to get back to her guitar and radio. Her cherished memory is October 13, 1970 and her current interest is A.B. She belonged to the Peter Hall Club '70-'71 and the Commercial Club '70-'71.

Donna Page "Be good. If you can't be good, be good at it!" says Don. Donna claims her weaknesses are laughing and giggling so it came as no surprise that people with no sense of humour are her pet aversion. To be a stewardess is her ambition.

Stuart Page "What a goomer!" Stuart's only ambition is to bum around the world and we're sure he will succeed. His activities are, of course, bumming around. His pet aversion is goomers and his weakness is fig newtons.

Jim Palmer With a prototype of "Cowboy Bob" it isn't any wonder that Jim's favorite saying is "We're going to the Zoo!" Our talented Hawaiian Dancer with a Johnny Jelly Bean smile wants to gain weight. Good luck Jim.

Marietta Panizzi (Etta) "If someone gets on your nerves, belt them." Perhaps that's why Marietta can be heard saying "My God, it's happened again." Marietta was involved in Basketball '67-'68 and the Ski Club. She is still waiting for a cherished memory.

Rosamund Parkinson "Roz," a smiling face in Riverdale, strives to be happy and successful. To each his own is her philosophy. Her cherished memories are Summer '69 and the Variety Show '70. Her activities were the Student Union, Dance Committee and Coffee House.

Iain Paton (Samuel Hogg) Iain was deported from Scotland and sentenced to four years hard labour in Riverdale, and all he got from this experience was a pair of dish pan hands. His ambition is to see the world, and maybe a little more. His current interests are baseball, football and hockey.

Michele Patrick "Goldie" s ambition is to keep the promise. Her assets are a few sincere friends and a dog named Cindy. Michele's aversion is cliques and her interest is skiing. She hopes to become an instructor. Her activities include Prefects, G.A.A., French Club, Ski Club.

Carol Patterson If you've heard a wild laugh followed by "Ah, but I have beautiful body!" then that's Carol. She plans to be exported to Manitoba. "Chief" worked on the Olympiad '67-'71, Fashion Show '67-'71 and her current interest is X-rays! Her personal philosophy is "Get involved."

Wendy Pearson Wendy wants to write and her asset is accordingly one typewriter. She hates phony English accents (hers isn't). Her activities have been Editor of 'Spirit', Red Cross '69-'70, Basketball, Soccer and Track.

Susan Peberdy Sue can often be heard saying, "How nice." She would like to be a teacher (but teaching what?) and she enjoys sewing. She hates wearing glasses. Sue was a timer for wrestling and belonged to the Ski Club.

Shirley Penston Shir's ambition in life is to travel and marry someone who works for an airline. She says "I came, I saw, and now I am leaving." Her cherished memory is Summer '70 and she was involved in Basketball, Badminton, Curling, G.A.A. executive '69-'70 and Prefect '69-'70.

Shaul Petel Hailing from Israel, Shaul can be remembered as the only person allowed to bring a dictionary to the English exam. His current interest is skydiving and his prototype is a god. He was active in Basketball and Soccer.

Salvatore Pillitteri "Tony" says you should get everything you can, when you get the chance. His ambition is to get to the top of Montreal, but he will probably end up going around laughing as usual. He hates pigs, as he is a Mr. Clean type. He was a member of the Band.

Michael Prosser (Tout) Mike's ambition is to get out of high school and his personal philosophy is "To live is to love living." Mike's assets include his big feet and his current interest is money. His favourite saying is "No way." Good luck, Mike.

Bill Ramage "Strive for what you feel you're best at." Bill's ambition is either to become a vet, or to get away from it all. Bill possesses a valuable talent: he is often able to open his locker on the first try. His aversion is Caranation Mills and he spends his time listening to Chicago.

Pat Ramsay "Hi, Beautiful! Got a dime?" That's our Pat! Pat's ambition is to become a millionaire so that he can pay his debts. His cherished memory is the night Rabbi financed him at the PT. Pat insists his weakness is pretty girls. Good luck, Pat.

Steven Renema "The man who steps into a cage with a dozen lions impresses everyone except a school bus driver." (Anonymous)

Pat Reynolds Pat, who hails from Summerside, P.E.I., insists that her prototype is Little Lotta. Her ambition is to become either a Math teacher or a Fashion Designer. Pat tells us that her weakness is food — not uncommon. Lots of luck, Pat.

Robert Rhead (Toopid) "Live it and love it." Bob's ambition is to become a musical ski bum, and since his assets include a pair of skis and a trumpet, he is well equipped. His cherished memory is being Miss Canada's escort. His prototype is Jean-Claude Kiley. Bob's activities included the Band '68-'71 and the Ski Club '68-'70.

Grant Rice (Grunt) Grant has been inactive during his years at Riverdale. His only activities were loafing and visiting the "pit". Grant's cherished memory is gr. 10 French. His ambition is to become rich, and he eventually will, if he isn't shot first.

Brian Richardson Brian is currently interested in attaining a High School Leaving Certificate and to become a wood worker in his own business. He remembers summer '70 and always says "That's impossible!" Brian found time to join the Chemistry Club in '68-'69.

John Richter (Big Ed) "Big Bad John" invaded Europe, summer '70, thus his cherished memory. Oddly enough, he dislikes low-hanging lights. He enjoys skiing and playing pool. School activities included Olympiad '71, Prefect '69-'71, Students' Voice '69-'71, John plans to be an engineer but he'll probably become a professional yodeler.

Gina Randlesome (Gazebo) "Happiness is like jam, spread it around and you're bound to get some on you." Gina would like to be a dental hygienist. Her cherished memory is a St. Thomas Grad dance with J.R. although she has a good sense of humour she dislikes people who can't things to themselves.

Bill Rehman Bill's first love is football. Apart from playing for the Mustangs, Bill can be seen watching the Alouettes at the Autostade. Bill's ambition is to get out Riverdale and to enter a good university.

David Reid (LTV) Apart from questioning his nickname we wonder about his weakness: biting noses. He wants to be an engineer and he dislikes dumb little things. His cherished memory is last summer in Europe.

Sharon-Lynn Rideout Sharon plans to be a secretary and to travel. That is, providing her boss doesn't crack his knuckles, as she hates it. Her cherished memory is the summer of '69 in Los Angeles. She belonged to the Commercial Club '69-'70.

Kerry Roach "D'y' have a free mod?" Kerry's favorite activity seems to be forgetting his French homework. His philosophy on homework happens to be "I would do it, if I could do it; since I can't do it, I won't do it." His asset is his self-lighting fire cracker.

Joanne Rojewski (Yo-Yo) "I'm going on my diet tomorrow!" This is probably due to the fact that Jo's weakness is food. She would like to become an Interior Decorator. Her cherished memory is January 24, 1970 and she was in the Ski Club '67-'68 and the Art Club.

Terry Rolland Terry is very active out of school, and in school Terry is normally able to talk a teacher into giving the class free mods. Terry's assets are his red hair and his weird sense of humour. Best of luck in what's to come, Terry!

Pauline Ronald Pauline has been active on Clubs, Committees, Sports Teams, as a Prefect, and on the G.A.A. and Union Exec. Her pet aversion is Kelly. Her ambition is to live in a house by the sea with lots of fireplaces, where she'll be able to practice her Tarzan call.

Steve Rosenthal Steve, often called Rosey, has a great ambition — to finish first in a race. He says that "There is more to good health than just paying bills (?)" He was in Track and Field, a Prefect, Chess Club and Public Speaking.

Warren Rosjier Warren says, "People should watch what they do to other people." His ambition is to become an engineer and is currently interested in electronics. Miss Meynard's French class '69-'70 is his cherished memory. His asset, he claims, is himself.

Jeff Rowles "What makes resisting temptation difficult, for many people, is that they don't want to discourage it completely." (Franklin P. Jones)

Fred Russell "Freddiekins" could be seen daily spending all of his money in the school cafeteria though his personal philosophy is still "Every penny counts." His activities have included Drivers' Ed. and skiing. His lifelong ambition is to become a businessman.

Phil Russell It's not surprising to note that brunettes are Phil's weakness. The Boston Bruins and Riverdale athletics are his current interests. Phil's ambition is to be a gym teacher but he'll probably end up washing the gym floor. "Don't get smart, Phil!"

Bill Rutledge Bill has been active in the Chess Club '68-'71, Cribbage Club '67-'71, Waterpolo '68-'69 and French Club '69-'71. His cherished memory is watching Mrs. Jackson demonstrate Doug Tabah's method of correcting spelling mistakes. Bill's philosophy is "Anything worth doing is worth getting finished as fast as possible."

Susan Sadler Susan wants to get back to Vancouver, then build a cabin and start a small farm up north. We wish her luck. She is peeved by people who play games with her, and her cherished memory is summer '70 in Vancouver.

Susan Savage Susan's ambition in life is to find another ocean. Her assets are her good friends and she detests hospital green. She has demonstrated her school spirit by participating in French Club exec., Student Union exec., G.A.A. exec., Choir, Prefects, and Publicity.

Joan Saville Joan wants to be a private secretary and to travel. Her aim this winter was not to ski over any thumbs. Good luck on that one. Her cherished memory is summer '70 in Maine but apart from her activities there she took part in French Club '69-'70, Ski Club '69-'70 here.

Heather Anne Scannell "I know, I know." Heather's weakness is shoes and she claims her assets and pet aversion are her five brothers. One of Heather's ambitions is to be happy and with five brothers we hope she makes it. She participated in Band '69-'70 and Art Club '69-'70.

Lynda Schofield Lynda uses her good eyesight for the right things, one of which is a green-eyed drummer. Her ambition is to get married and live happily ever after (of course). She also likes maroon convertibles. Her cherished memory is October 11, 1969 near Atwater.

Marsha Seidel "The world is a great place to live in — too bad we're only visitors," sighs Marsha. While munching on Walker's chocolate chip cookies, Marsha's pet aversion is people who call her up in the middle of a hockey game. Lots of luck, Marsha!

Susan Semark Susan plans to be a biologist or a secretary. Her cherished memory has yet to come. We don't hear from Susan very often so we don't know much about her. Good luck, Susan.

Ian Shurville (Gerbs) Otherwise known as "Gerbs," Ian's current interests are golf, hockey, and records. His pet aversions include elevators and short hair. He claims that his ambition is to attend university and we wish him the best of luck.

Shelly Simpson "Don't do today what you can put off 'til tomorrow . . ." That's our Shelly. She must be anti-social cause she hates crowded places. Shelly hopes to finish school and then travel. Her current interest is remodeling old clothes.

Laurene Smeall Laurene doesn't think she's original enough to have a favorite saying but her philosophy "Find your true self before judging others" makes up for it. She was on the Annual staff '68-'69, French Club and the Fashion Show committee '68-'69.

Julia Sexsmith (Julie) "I'm not dumb y' know!" We know, Julia. She wants to travel around the world. While at Riverdale, Julie took part in the Art Club, La Tuque Exchange, Folksong Society and was Head Prefect '70-'71. Joy Shaw (Kid) "Live for today because tomorrow is promised to no one." Joy claims her asset is the fact that she's a Capricorn. She hates people who always look at the bad side of life, and she did some good living in the summers '69 and '70.

Lark Shemie Lark wants to become a social worker. Her favorite saying is "What did you say?" Her cherished memory is January, 1970 and she dislikes people who stare. She enjoys riding, swimming, travelling and day dreaming. Lark was involved with SWAY, the Hebrew Club '69 and the French Club '69.

*Best of Luck
Laurene Smeall*

Stefan Smeja "Never do today what you can do tomorrow." Stefan is a member of the Estonian group at Riverdale. His ambition is to become a ski instructor. Stefan has spent most of his time amassing his fortune of $1.87 in pennies, but he's had time left to eat mushy porridge at La Tuque. He was a member of La Tuque Exchange, Ski Club and Drama.

Barbara Smith Barbara's personal philosophy "You are what you are if you think you are" makes it understandable that her ambition is as yet unknown. Skiing and reading are Barb's current interests. Her cherished memory is April, 1970.

Heather Smith (Water Rat) Heather's cherished memory is a night at La Ronde, summer '70, perhaps because she's easy to talk to. Her ambition is to go to university and meet new people. Heather was a Prefect, a Council Rep. and a member of La Tuque Exchange and Grad decorating.

Karen Smith (Smitty) Karen would like to take Fine Arts at Sir George. Her favorite saying is "Joy in the Morning." Her cherished memories are Aug. 7-14 in O.P. Maine and tripping on the Quebec Trip '70. She dislikes sarcastic people and those who say "Well, what d'ya say, Karen?"

Vicky Spencer Vicky plans to become a nurse. "Doesn't that just frost your loap, sister?" Vick's assets are extreme goodness and a great singing voice. She was in Art Club and Grad Committee.

Debbie Steele Debbie, nicknamed "Slim," has participated in Basketball, Swimming, and Volleyball. Hoping to become a secretary, Debbie's cherished memory is summer '70. Her good humor and cheerful countenance have brightened the dreary halls of Riverdale.

Debbie Stevens (Deb) "Be" Debbie is a quiet girl, even the answers she gave on the biography sheet showed this. Her activities were, simply learning and her cherished memories are everything. Good luck Debbie.

Judy Stewart "Be yourself" is Stewy's philosophy. This proud possessor of one long fingernail wants to become a stewardess and travel. At Riverdale she got around, being active in Red Cross, Badminton, SWAY, Ski Club, Aquatic Club and Football.

Christine Stohmann "Opportunity knocks only once but temptation leans on the doorbell!" Christine lists her assets as blonde hair and a backless dress. Her cherished memory is summer '70 at the annexes. Her pet aversions are mornings and A.H. Chris' prototype is Mae West and her weakness is P.R. Activities: Variety Show '69, Student Council Rep. '67.

Harold Stoll Harold wishes to become a successful musician. He dislikes grey flannel pants and thus spends most of his time in jeans. His cherished memory occurred 250 miles out of Montreal in a farmer's field. He is interested in guitar.

Mariusz J. Suchoriski Mariusz wants to become a member of the medical profession (if he ever makes it out of Riverdale). He lists his modest asset as himself and his cherished memory has had to be censored. Activities: Prefect '71, Students' Voice '69-'70, Chess Club '68-'70, Chemistry Club '70, Film Club '70, and Cribbage Club '71.

Bill Suggitt Bill hopes to go to college, where he will enjoy his weakness, current interest and cherished memory: wine, women, and song!

Judy Sullivan (Chipmunk)

"For every trouble under the sun,
There is a remedy or there is none.

If there be one, try to find it,

If there be none, never mind it."

Judy's ambition is to meet a nice teddy bear. Her cherished memory is Nov. 2, 1970.

Lana Joy Sutcliffe (Neen) "I would if I could, I can, so . . . the devil made me do it!" Neen would like to be an elementary school teacher but her probably destiny will be to repeat grade one. She spends her time thinking up good answers to Lorraine's snide remarks! Best of luck.

Lori Sutcliffe "It is better to remain silent and appear dumb, than to speak and remove all doubt." Lori would like to be a stewardess but will probably end up scrubbing down a Boeing 747. Her weakness is the Boston Bruins and she's forever telling Lorraine how great Bobby Orr is.

Gill Swartele (Horny-Toes) "Go through life with a grin on your face and you'll get sun burned teeth!" Gill's ambition is to out talk her mother. Her cherished memory is summer '70 and she says "Too Dry." Her weaknesses are cream millfaits and bass players. (Both are fattening).

Douglas Tabah "Who me? Drop dead — that makes three of us." (?) That's our Doug. Doug's got a weakness for people who "smile pretty" and say "please." He hates dumb people, homework, and "pesky teachers."

Peter Taws If there is any commotion in class look over to Peter's side of the room and right in the middle of it, grinning like a beaver you'll find Peter. Besides speaking French "Fluently," Peter's activities in school consisted of trying to make it from one class to another.

Debbie Tetreault (Mooch) Debbie looks forward to succeeding in making Carol go crazy. She is often heard saying "Who's got some money, John!" Her pet aversion is staying in school for one full day. Her asset is her personality and she is an "always in trouble" type.

Janess Todd (Toad) Janess, whose prototype, in Phil's opinion, is Brigitte Bardot, claims her ambition is to become an architect and be happy. Her current interest are nature and the opposite sex. Her pet aversion is Phill Best of luck, "Toad."

Kevin Todd "Fresh air and innocence are good if you don't take too much of them — but I always remember that most of the achievements and pleasures of life are in bad air." (Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes)

Michael Tomasek "Ah yes, I remember it well!" Mike can usually be found stumbling around the halls trying to fulfill his ambition which is to say or do something intelligent. This year he hopes to say good-bye to Riverdale forever, may be.

Paul Tomlinson Paul's current interest are raising and training purebred dogs, thus it is not strange that his ambition is to become a veterinarian. He claims his prototype is Dr. Doolittle. His favourite saying is "Nibble uponst it!" Best of luck!

Heather Truman (Bink) "If you want it, get it!" Heather wants to become a secretary but she'll probably end up pushing a broom instead of typewriter keys. Her cherished memory is summer '70. "Bink's aversion is people who spell her name with an "E" and her weakness is believing everything she hears.

Ellen Unkrig Ellen wants to bum around England with Sally this summer and she'd like to be the fat lady in a circus. She's always saying "Oh Sally, that's disgusting!" Her weaknesses are hobos and Elmer. She was in the Ski Club '69-'70 and Drama '70-'71.

Franchois Valentyne "I am immune." Frank's prototype is Will E. Coyote, and besides chasing road-runners (and other birds), he spends his time drinking tea out of Brandy bottles. His cherished memory is February 2, 1969 and his weakness is lack of bread. Activities: Radio Riverdale '68-'71, Students' Voice '69-'70, and the Band '68-'71.

Chris Vandervan "Who's she?" I don't know, but Chris will probably find out! He wants to go to college and play football. His asset is a Labatts 50 and he took part in Wrestling '66-'67, Variety Show '70, Quebec Trip '70 and four long years at Riverdale.

Kelly Vince
Kelly Vince Our Student Union president is often heard saying "One extra large all dressed." Kelly remembers most the day he discovered he has more than one cherished memory, and says his pet aversion is Pauline. (?) His favourite epigram is "Take it easy, but take it."

Ken Voelker Ken's ultimate goal in life is to be an engineer and he's working towards it with $1.23 in change and a lucky horseshoe! He feels that if the Lord had meant us to have an education we would have been born intelligent. Hence, one often hears him asking "What homework?"

Ben Ward Ben believes that life is like a river — downhill all the way. Because of this he plans to be a geologist. His cherished memory is the 1970 vacation with his family and his new boat. His favourite saying is "Man, real cool."

Janet Watson (Jen) Jen's ambition is to become a librarian. Her pet aversion is polka dots and she can frequently be heard saying "You're kidding!" Her sense of humour balances her weakness of impatience. Lots of luck, Janet.

Anne Westlake
Anne Westlake Anne's ambitions are to be a hair dresser and to travel. She, like many other people, hates T.V. commercials. Anne's favourite saying is "You'll grow out of it." Anne's current interests are animals. Her cherished memories are summers '68 and '70.

Bill Weston "Heredity is what makes the mothers and fathers of teenagers wonder a little about each other."

Iris Williams Iris plans to get married and have six boys. She will probably spend the rest of her life saying "Boy, have I got something to tell you" to her husband. She remembers the day she met a certain H.B. She was a Prefect '68-'69.

Jennifer Williams "Heredity is what makes the mother and father of teenagers wonder a little about each other." (General Features Corp.)

Martin Wills (George) "Anarchy is the answer." Martin is a modest person and lists his weaknesses as "absolutely none." His ambition is to graduate from a Military College and his cherished memory is watching a simulated mugging! His current interests are anarchy, pharmacy and lurking in the shadows.

Bill Wilson Bill Wilson can be seen shuffling around the halls raising his eyebrows to everyone he meets. His activities included being a Perfect '69-'71, and creating chaos. To graduate from Riverdale is his present ambition. Best of luck in the future. Cam Woodburn (Woodbum) "Forget it!" Cam's modest ambition is to become a super star and with his assets — red hair and great ability — how can he fail. However since his aversion is classrooms it is doubtful that his success will be in the scholastic area. Sue Woodley Sue has a weakness for Mackintosh's toffee. Her ambition is to graduate from McGill. Sue's cherished memory is the Lightfoot Concert Feb. '70. Her activities at Riverdale include Ski Club, Badminton, and Captain of the Senior Cheerleaders.

Iain Young "It is better to have loved and lost than to never have loved at all" will follow our future "travelling shrink." He claims his asset is his smile but "forget it." Football, Basketball, Volleyball, Swimming were his activities. Iain will never forget "one fine midsummer's night." Linda Young Linda's ambition is to be clad in white once more in her life. She is often heard saying, "Ah, come on, eh?" Linda's cherished memories are Grad Night '70 and Mr. Assaly's geography class '70 with D.M.

